Matt Newton

Matt is a 20 year veteran of Fidelity Investments. He began his career as a Financial Consultant helping retail investors with portfolio allocation and investment guidance. He then took on responsibilities managing financial professionals in Fidelity's Investments group and later their Income Planning group. From there, he took a role managing Relationship Officers in Fidelity's Portfolio Advisory Service department. He then transitioned to roles managing education and guidance associates in the Tax-Exempt market.

Matt accepted his current role at Fidelity, managing the onsite education and counseling team dedicated to the University of California, in November of 2015.

Matt holds a BA in Economics and an MBA from the University of Utah. He and his wife, Aimee, reside in Taylorsville, Utah with their four children.
