

UC ANR Staff Assembly update

The UC ANR Staff Assembly is planning its first “ambassador meeting” on Aug. 2, 2017. UC ANR is spread throughout the state of California, making it challenging to connect with all staff. The Staff Assembly Council recruited 42 “ambassadors,” one individual at each location. These ambassadors are invited to the meeting at the UC ANR building in Davis, with the SA Council covering the travel costs.

At the meeting, the ambassadors will hear from UC ANR Vice President Glenda Humiston and UC ANR Human Resources Compensation and Employment Manager Bethanie Brown. The ambassadors will get an overview of council activities to date and weigh in on where they what they would like to see the UC ANR Staff Assembly do in the future.

The UC ANR delegates to the Council of UC Staff Assemblies are also on the agenda to talk about the experience of serving in the statewide organization and explain their role and the outcomes of the CUCSA workgroups in which they participated.

During the meeting, UC ANR Staff Assembly ambassadors will be engaged in planning for the Staff Assembly’s part in the UC ANR Statewide Conference, scheduled for April 2018 in Ontario.
