

Kina Condit-Chadwick

Senior Analyst, Employee Insights

Kina provides project management expertise to clients at Willis Towers Watson. Over the course of her career, she has managed hundreds of employee survey projects with a focus on employee engagement, trust and culture. In addition to managing projects, Kina has evaluated culture audits for Fortune magazine's 100 Best Places to Work For list and has also served as a Client Technology Consultant, strategically planning survey design layout and data capture requirements.

She holds a BA in Anthropology and Sociology from Mount Holyoke College in South Hadley, Massachusetts.

Updated August 3, 2017