

Campus Update March 2007

Staff Engagement

UCI Staff Assembly is partnering with Athletics and the School of the Arts to offer special events for staff.

- March 9, Staff Assembly and Athletics are sponsoring staff night at the UCI Men's volleyball games against UCLA. Staff can receive up to five complimentary tickets.
- March 15, Staff Assembly and the Claire Trevor School of the Arts is hosting Staff Night at the Arts. Staff will receive a special discount price to that night's performance of "Sunday in the Park with George" and an invitation to an exclusive pre-show reception with the show's director.

On March 20th, UCI Staff Assembly is hosting its annual pancake breakfast. This event has grown in popularity with each year with approximately 600 staff employees attending.

Staff Scholarship Program

Applications are now being accepted for the staff scholarship program. Funded by the sales of Entertainment Books, the Staff Assembly Career Enhancement Program helps staff continue their education in an associates, bachelor's or graduate degree program.

Staff Advisory to the Regents

Staff Assembly hosted a forum with the current Staff Advisors on February 21st to help promote the program and the current application process.

Leadership Forum

Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost Michael Gottfredson provided a state of the campus address on January 25, 2007.
