

UC Santa Cruz

Staff Advisory Board News and Updates – March 2006

Highlights of staff-related stories from the last few months in the campus newspaper, CURRENTS ONLINE (<http://currents.ucsc.edu>):

Awards and Honors:

* Myriah Jasper, a staff member in the Colleges and University Housing Services Human Resources unit, was honored at the December meeting of the UC staff council.

<http://currents.ucsc.edu/05-06/01-02/awards-jasper.asp>

In a message to the campus community, Chancellor Denton and Campus Provost Kliger provide an update on the Long-Range Development Plan process.

<http://messages.ucsc.edu/05-06/01-16.lrdp.asp>

For the staff of UCSC's Gift Administration Office, holiday giving has an extra meaning: the annual rush of donors hurrying to capture tax deductions by making year-end donations to the campus.

<http://currents.ucsc.edu/05-06/12-12/giving.asp>

All faculty and staff are invited to the campus's annual holiday party, this Wednesday, December 14, 2005.

http://currents.ucsc.edu/05-06/12-12/holiday_party.pdf

Quoted in a New York Times article about military surveillance at UCSC, Chancellor Denton and Academic Senate Chair Faye Crosby are among campus people drawing recent media attention.

<http://currents.ucsc.edu/05-06/01-16/news.asp>

Following efforts by Chancellor Denton and members of California's congressional delegation, the Department of Defense has removed mention of a campus demonstration from a Pentagon database.

<http://press.ucsc.edu/text.asp?pid=814>