

Campus Update
June 2009

UCSF New Chancellor Named!

Susan Desmond-Hellmann - a physician, distinguished leader in cancer research, biotechnology industry executive, who most recently served as president of product development for Genentech, and adjunct member of the UCSF faculty has become the Chancellor-Elect of UCSF. She will take over from Chancellor Bishop in August 2009.

Desmond-Hellmann, 51, brings a deep clinical, research, and executive leadership background and commitment to high-quality patient care to the position of UCSF chancellor. She is a board-certified physician in internal medicine and medical oncology who has dedicated much of her career to cancer research. She has been with South San Francisco-based Genentech for 14 years – as clinical scientist, chief medical officer, executive vice president and president.

UCSF Staff Council holding elections for Executive Board positions

The UCSF Staff Council is holding elections for a number of our Executive Board positions, including Chair-Elect, Secretary, Editor, Junior CUCSA Delegate and Regents' Observer. The nominations portion of the process has been concluded and the voting will be concluded May 29th. We will announce the name of the new CUCSA Junior Delegate at the June CUCSA meeting.

UCSFCareers Facebook Fan Page and Twitter launched!

The UCSFCareers Facebook Fan Page was launched on May 5th. It is expected to triple traffic to the UCSFCareers website. It was simultaneously launched on Twitter where people can search for openings in their immediate area. These pages will be used to announce job fairs, recruitment events and job postings.

UCSF Staff Council Sustainability Series Continues – Paperless Office

The Paperless Office is the next lecture in our Sustainability Series of Learn @ Lunch sessions. It will take place on June 2nd from 12:00 – 1:30 p.m. and will consist of a number of subject matter experts who will talk about their experiences in going paperless. The event will be simulcast to Mt. Zion and Laurel Heights campuses from Cole Hall at the Parnassus campus so that staff at other locations can participate from their desks.

Campus update: contact: Kathy Jackson, jacksonkl@vision.ucsf.edu